

The Railway Hotel, renamed 'Four Fathoms' in 1974

The 'King's Head Inn'

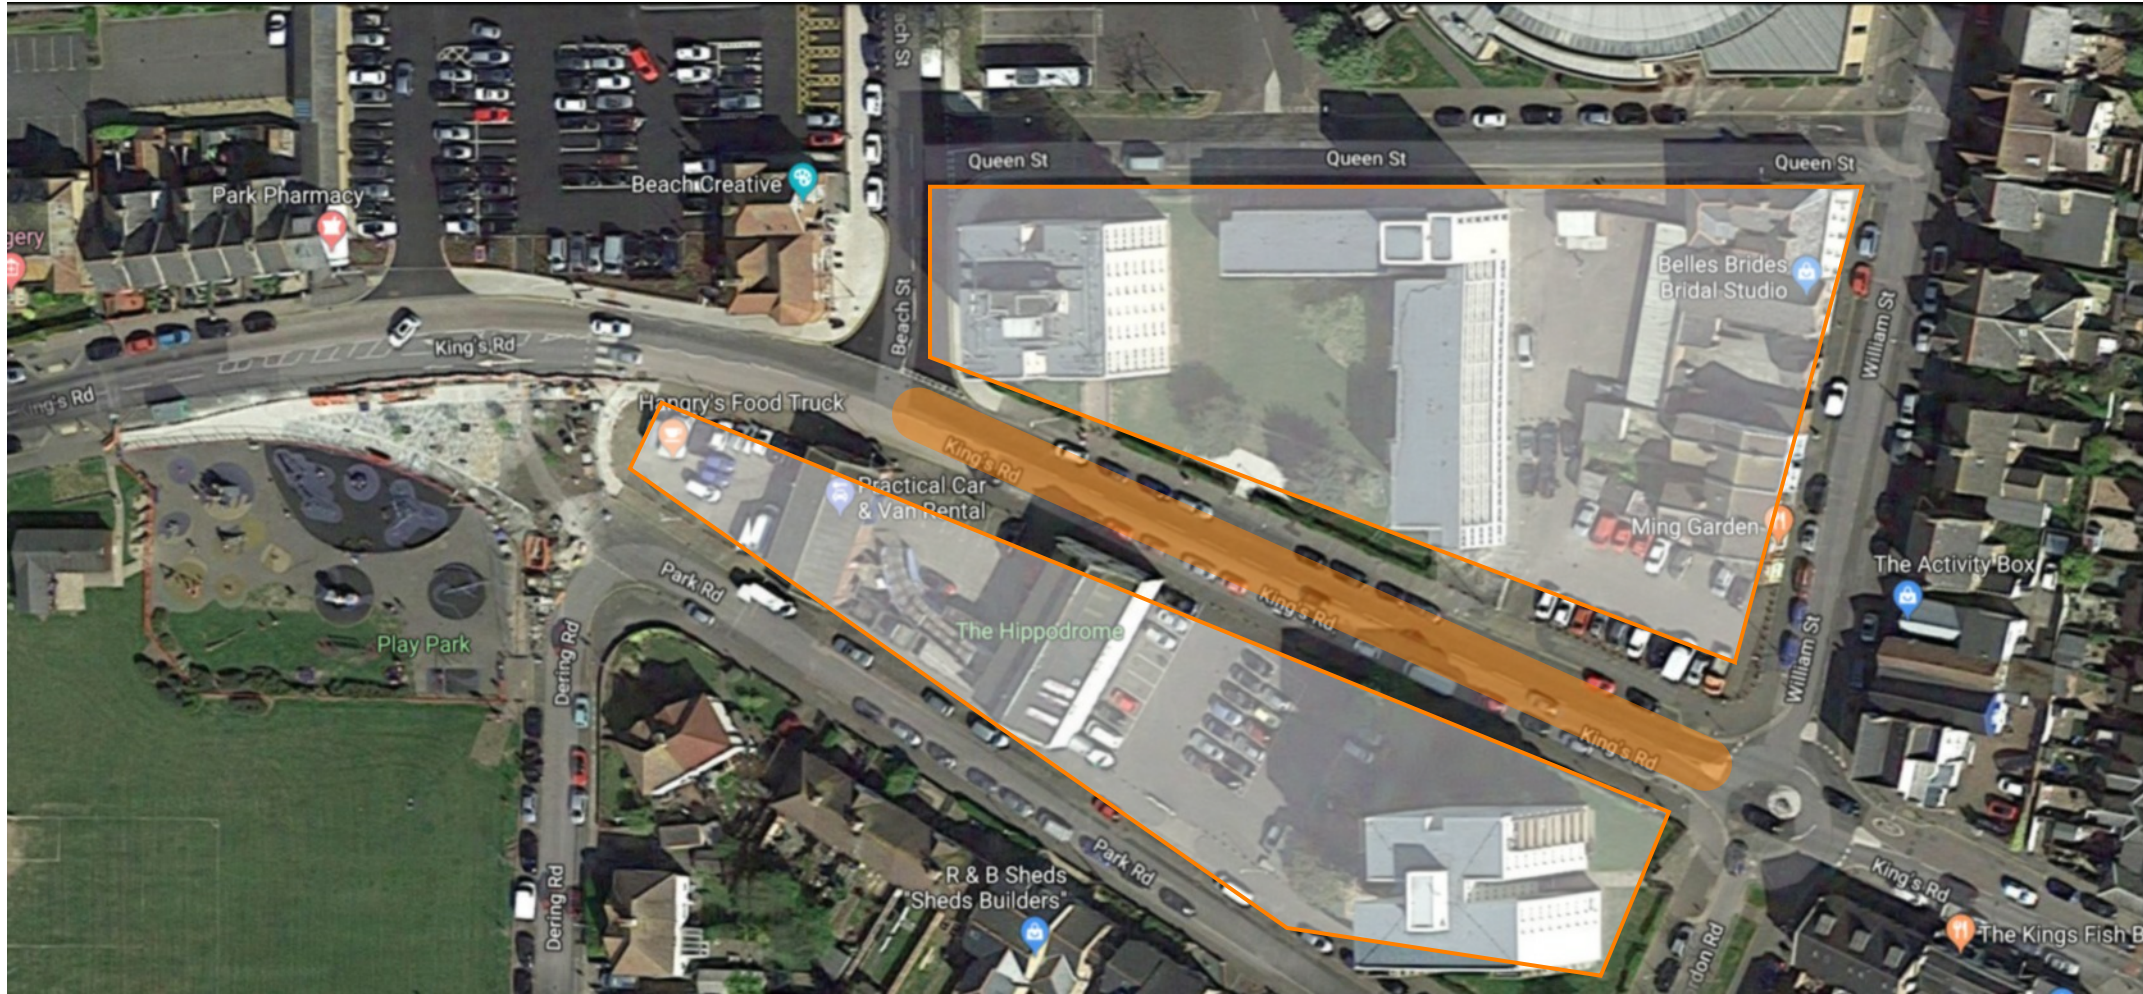

The Railway Hotel (forming corner of block on High Street/Station Road) was occupied by Robert Quickended and Laura Chew Quickeden nee Robinson from around the year 1899 to 1930. While Laura's brother, Charles Robert Robinson occupied The King's Head Inn at number 7 Kings Street from around 1903 to 1913 - was demolished around 1914.

Map Revised: 1906 and Published: 1908

View: Kent XXIII.SE (includes: Herne Bay; Whitstable.) - Ordnance Survey Six-inch England and Wales, 1842-1952
<https://maps.nls.uk/view/101428701>

Kings Road/Street Herne Bay

Imagery ©2019 Google, Map data ©2019

20M

Around the year 1914 terraced shops and houses on Kings Street (now part of Kings Road) where demolished. In 2019 large blocks of flats and commercial buildings occupy the area.