

Kings Road/Street Herne Bay

Imagery ©2019 Google, Map data ©2019

20M

Around the year 1914 terraced shops and houses on Kings Street (now part of Kings Road) where demolished. In 2019 large blocks of flats and commercial buildings occupy the area.

The Railway Hotel (forming corner of block on High Street/Station Road) was occupied by Robert Quickended and Laura Chew Quickeden nee Robinson from around the year 1899 to 1930.

The King's Head Inn at number 7 Kings Street was occupied by Charles Robert Robinson from around 1903 to 1913. In 1914 it was demolished.

Map Revised: 1906 and Published: 1908